Buffalo Wild Wings is an internationally-recognized brand with locations throughout the United States and Canada. 2013 was the first year BWW hosted a collegiate football bowl game. This shirt uses the Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl logo in a 3D effect. It is a part of a larger, ongoing campaign for BWW which includes merchandise for retail and online stores, uniforms, signage, and promotional products.

Multnomah
University
RETAIL APPAREL

This shirt was designed for Multnomah University, located in the heart of Portland.
I included a cityscape of the Portland skyline.

“...Hand-illustrated line drawing of a prominent building on campus with the Portland cityscape...”

This piece was part of a collection of projects for Multnomah University. They wanted a retail program, geared toward students, to market on campus and in their online store. The school wanted a piece that reflected Portland, appealed to the college student demographic, and incorporated a vintage, collegiate-looking crest. My solution was a hand-illustrated line drawing of a prominent building on campus with the Portland cityscape and mountains in the background.

I reinvented the logo and package design for Tire Life, a flagship product of Fuller Brothers, Inc.
